We Love Our Local Food Sources

DONATIONS

Morganton Aldi

Walmart Neighborhood Market
N. Green Street

Bost Road
Food Lion

The partnerships with these businesses have been arranged through Second Harvest. We pick up donations once a week from these stores (produce, dairy, deli and bakery items, frozen meats, and some non-perishables).

Our partnership with Second Harvest specifies that we not directly contact local businesses that are on their “blue donor list” for donations.

PRODUCE PURCHASES

The “Fresh, Healthy, and Local” grant from Resourceful Communities helps us buy fresh fruits and vegetables each week for our clients. Part of our grant goal is to purchase from local produce stands and suppliers. We talk with our clients about which fruits and vegetables their families prefer.

Canoe Creek Produce

Taylor's Produce

Penny Patch Produce

MILK & EGG PURCHASES

We have a standing order to buy milk and eggs every week at the Walmart Neighborhood Market. Our “Milk Money” grant through Burke Women’s Fund helps us buy the milk. Our budget covers the weekly egg purchases. We also buy from Aldi or Food Lion if needed.
